AMERICAN COLLEGE
THEATER FESTIVAL
REGION 8

THE RESPONSE IS AT
THE CENTER OF ALL
WE DO AT KCACTF

Thank you for responding to our students participating at Festival. We could not serve our students without your assistance.

Praise what has been successfully achieved; Challenge each participant to move forward a step or two in some area.

We hope these reminders taken from one of Sid Friedman's lectures will aid you in being helpful to students and faculty in your responses:

- Focus on the work rather than yourself and your experience.
- Be respectful of the work and the process.
- Realize yours is only one viewpoint.
- Be truthful and constructive.
- Be inclusive and specific.
- Respond rather than redirect. Talk about what you experienced.
- Do not turn the response over to audience discussion.
- Offer praise and challenges.
- A good guideline is praise two or three things for every challenge given.
